SUICIDED IN CHURCH

With Words, "Goodbye, Eva," Man Fired Fatal Shot.

HE PUT BULLET IN HIS BRAIN

Sensational Suicide Occurs at the Apostolic Faith Church in Seattle, Washington—Girl Man Bade Farewell Was His Fiance.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 19.—With the words, "Good by, Eva," Edward Neill Kelly, a young workman, drew a revolver and fired a bullet through his head on the platform of the Apostolic Faith church here last Thursday.

The girl he referred to was sitting in the audience within ten feet of the young man when he fired the fatal shot. Kelly died at the hospital half an hour later.

Kelly, who was 19 years of age, met Eva Kesterson, a 15 year old school girl, at an evangelistic revival held here in September and a week ago they became engaged. They were to be married on Thanksgiving day.

As one of the speakers at the church finished testifying "in foreign tongues" which is a part of the belief of this creed, Kelly arose with the words "It is my turn next." He then started singing "The Fire of Heavenly Love Is Burning in My Soul." As the last words were finished he drew a gun, turned toward the girl, said "goodby," and fired the fatal shot.

ROASTED SICK INDIANS.

Indian Tribes Said To Have Reverted to Most Brutal Savagery.

Winnipeg, Manitoba, Oct. 19—That Indian tribes living within a few hundred miles of Winnipeg have reverted to the most brutal savagery was brought out at the trials of chieftains of the Salteux tribe just ended at the Hudson Bay Company's fort at Norway. Sick and helpless members of the tribe were strangled and burned at the stake for no other reason than to relieve their relatives of caring for them.

Chief Joseph Pesequan was convicted of murder and sentenced to death. Chief Jack of the Sucker band of the same tribe, strangled himself to death in his cell the night before the date set for his trial.

Two brothers named Rae are in jail at Norway house, awaiting trial for several murders.

Eyelids, a brave of the Crane band, gave sensational testimony, specifically describing five strangulations and burnings in which he participated. In one instance the strangulation was not complete, and the victim was placed on a platform over a huge fire, where he was slowly roasted to death.

After the execution of Chief Joseph, Eyelids will be sent to the north to tell his tribesmen what ahppens to stranglers.

WRECK ON SOUTHERN.

One Man Killed in Smash Near Rudd, North Carolina.

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 19.—At 10:30 o'clock Thursday night train No 34, on the Southern railroad, crashed into a second freight, No. 83, at Rudd, N. C., about eight miles north of Greensboro. The fireman on the freight was killed and the engineer was injured, as were a number of the passengers on train No. 34.

Wrecking trains from Danville and Spencer were sent to the scene of the wreck, and a relief train went from here with physicians on board.

Superintendent Coapman was in charge of the affairs from this point.

As near as could be ascertained, train No. 83 was sidetracked at the Rudd switch and the switch to the main line was left open, due to the carelessness of the flagman.

Prince Interested in Cup Challenge.

Stockholm, Oct. 19.—Prince Gustavus Adolphus, duke of Sounia, eldest son of the crown prince. Prince Gustavus, is manifesting great interest in the proposed challege for the America's cup in behalf of the Royal Swedish Yacht club. The prince declared his intention to support the movement in every means possible.

CONDUCTOR'S BRAVE ACT.

Falls Under Train in Trying to Save Girl's Life.

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 19.—Elizabeth and Mary Shomber, of this city, driven from the towpath of the Raritan by two bucking mules, were watching the antics of the animals from the tracks of the Pennsylvania road, so interested that they did not see a freight train backing down on them.

William Van Deventer, the conductor, and John Morgan, a brakeman, ran to the flat car at the rear of the train, crying to the women, but they did not hear.

As the train bore down, Morgan reached out, caught Mary Shomber by the shoulders and thrust her off the track. She was saved, though she fell perilously near the wheels.

Elizabeth was standing between the rails. Dan Deventer reached out and caught her by th eshoulders, thinking to hold her in the air until Morgan could aid him drag her onto the flat car. He probably would have succeeded had not the girl in fright struggled as she felt his hand sgrip her.

Van Deventer lost his palance and fell, just as Morgan reached to help him. He and the girl rolled together on the tracks and before the train could be stopped the first car passed over them.

The girl was so badly injured that she will probably die from her injuries. Both of her legs and her right arm were cut off. Van Deventer's left leg was cut off and several ribs were broken. An ambulance took the conductor and the girl to St. Francis hospital.

The mules, whose antics had driven the sisters from the tow path, ran away in the excitement following the accident, and capsized the tow boat, tieing up the canal traffic until the boat could be raised.

BRYAN AND JOHNSON.

That Will Be Democratic Ticket in 1908, Lawyer Baldwin Says.

Washington, Oct. 19—William J. Bryan for president and Governor John A. Johnson, of Minnesota, for vice president, is the democratic ticket which John N. Baldwin, of Nebraska, general counsel of the Union Pacific railroad, Thursday predicted would be nominated.

"A movement to bring about this combination is on foot," declared Mr. Baldwin. "It has for its purpose the bringing to the support of the democratic party the hearty republican Scandinavian vote of the great northwest, which, it is believed, would be effected by the naming of Governor Johnson as Bryan's running mate, Johnson being a Swede. Politicians figure that the democrats by this arrangement would have a chance of carrying Minnesota, the Dakotas, Wisconsin, Iowa, Nebraska and possibly Illinois.

WHEREABOUTS A MYSTERY.

No Light Thrown on Disappearance of Lawyer's Wife

New York, Oct. 19.—After missing sixteen days, during which an assiduous search for her has been kept up, the whereabouts of Mrs. Clifford W. Hartridge, wife of the lawyer, is as much unknown to her husband and relatives as ever. Mrs. Hartridge and Mrs. Leslie Russell, Mrs. Hartridge's mother, have no idea where the missing woman is, but they have come to the conclusion, Mr. Hartridge says, that she is either in some sanitarium or in Europe.

Mr. Hartridge inclines to the idea that she is in a sanitarium, because the letter she sent to her mother just before her disappearance indicated that she was unstrung.

Officers Are Selected.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 19.—At the final business session of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland, officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: General Gates P. Thurston, Nashville, president; Orlando A. Somers, of Kokomo, Ind., corresponding secretary; General A. E. Carman, Washington, D. C., treasurer. Judge O. B. Liddell, of Denver, Colo., was selected to deliver the oration next year. The reunion closed with the annual banquet.

A GREWSOME AFFAIR

Woman Talked With Husband's Spirit Over 'Phone.

OR AT LEAST SO SHE CLAIMS

Says Spirit Bade Her to Take Up Her Residence in California, So She Has Sold Out and Left Her Former Home Place.

New York, Oct. 19.—Mrs. Mabel Varins left her New Jersey home, "The Cedars," Tuesday to take up her residence in Southern California.

"My dead husband's spirit bade me go," Mrs. Varins told her neigabors. "He chose the place where I am to live and awaits me there."

Mr. and Mrs. Varins about six years ago occupied "The Cedars," a cottage on the brow of Waukhaw mountain, about three miles from the town of Jacksonville, N. J. Their new neighbors knew nothing of them except that they were spiritualists, and this because they were often invited to seances at "The Cedars." Some went and heard strange rappings and saw manifestations that scared them. So the Varinses made no converts.

Varins died about a year ago. His widow buried him a few hundred feet from the cottage on the land they leased. A telephone had connected the house with the barn, where the man-of-all work slept. Mrs. Varins had the instrument taken from the barn and buried in her husband's grave. For months she passed most of the time talking through the telephone in the house.

It was gruesome to watch her; she would speak into the 'phone, then she seemed to get an answer which she would punctuate by saying "Yes, dear," or "No, dear." She told the neighbors she called up her husband and talked with him and asked them if they would like to talk to him.

Mrs. Varins was taken ill two months ago and was in her bed six weeks. As soon as she could crawl to the telephone she called her husband.

"He did not answer," she told her nurse. "His spirit has left his grave."

Soon she said her husband had appeared to her during the night and told her he had been searching the world for an ideal dwelling place for her and had found it in Lower California. From that day Mrs. Varins gained health and bodily strength; a fortnight ago she discharged her farm hand; since then she has been selling her household goods.

Captain and Six Men Saved.

Fernandina, Fla., Oct. 18.—Captain Nicklas and six men of the schooner Glad Tidings, were picked up off the Fernandina bar by the pilot boat Francis Elizabeth. The Glad Tidings struck on the bar. The pumps were worked, but the water in the hold gained rapidly, forcing those aboard to take the life boat. The schooner sank soon after they left her. The life boat withstood the rough weather until the pilot boat appeared.

Earthquake in Mid-Ocean.

Berkeley, Calif., Oct. 19.—Professor A. C. Lanschner, of the university of California, announced Thursday night that the center of the earth disturbance felt on the Pacific coast Wednesday, and probably the same as was registered in Washington, D. C., was about 1,000 miles south of Berkeley, in mid-ocean, probably between the Hawaiian Islands and the south coast of Mexico.

To Beat the Lusitania.

Berlin, Oct. 19.—Director Ballis, of the Hamburg-American line, is quoted as saying in an interview published in the Zeitung of Vienna, as admitting the report that his company intended to build a steamer of 47,000 tons, larger than the Cunard liner Lusitania, to be driven by a combination of turbine and reciprocating engines.

JOHN W. AIKEN DEAD.

Death Visits Distinguished Family at Cartersville, Ga.

Cartersville, Ga., Oct. 19.—Judge John W. Aiken, president of the Georgia senate, lawyer, author, and one of the most prominent men in the public life of the state, died here Friday morning.

Judge Aiken's death followed closely that of his mother.

Judge Aiken died at 8:40 o'clock Friday morning, the members of his family at his bedside when death came. It was no surprise, as he had been in a precarious condition for two days. An attack of la grippe had been followed by pneumonia, and this, in turn, by a stroke of paralysis, which proved too much for Judge Aiken's strength.

Judge Aiken is survived by his wife, who was Miss Johnson, daughter of Colonel Abada Johnson, of Cartersville, and his three daughters. Three brothers and two sisters also survive him.

Judge Aiken's death will come as a great shock to his friends, not only in Cartersville and that vicinity, where he had lived, but all over the state. He was known not only as a brilliant orator and writer, but also had a personality which made him liked regardless of th ecauses he espoused. The town of Cartersville is in mourning for him.

The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Cartersville, Ga., Oct. 19.—Mrs. Akin, of Cartersville, mother of Jno. W. Akin, president of the Georgia senate, died at her home in Cartersville, Ga., on Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Akin was, before her marriage, Miss Mary Verdery, of Augusta. She was born July 6, 1830. She was the wife of Colonel Warren Akin, who was the speaker of the confederate house of representatives of Georgia. He was the last whig candidate for governor of Georgia, being defeated by Joseph E. Brown in 1859. Mrs. Akin was a member of the Methodist church for seventy-one years. Her husband was a local Methodist minister, and also a lawyer, being considered the leader of the Cherokee bar.

Man Then Touched Off Explosive—His Head Blown Off.

York, Pa., Oct. 19.—Jacob Detlinger, aged 59 years, of this city, committed suicide in an unusual manner. Placing a stick of dynamite in his mouth and holding it in his right hand, Detlinger exploded the dynamite, blowing his head off and shattering the hand that held the explosive.

Sentenced to Life Imprisonment.

Moultrie, Ga., Oct. 19—The jury in the Jim Johnson case returned a verdict of murder, with recommendation to mercy. The sentence of life imprisonment was for the second time imposed on Johnson, who is charged with having assassinated his aged father for life insurance a little more than a year ago. The evidence was only circumstantial, but was drawn tightly around Johnson by Solicitor W. E. Thomas. The case was tried a year ago, and the same verdict was rendered, but on appeal to the supreme court a [illegible] was granted.

ROOSEVELT KILLS A BEAR.

After Chase Through Canebrake Fine Specimen Is Secured.

Stamboul, La., Oct. 19.—The president killed a bear late Thursday afternoon.

Few details of the president's bear killing are known, except that it took place late Thursday afternoon after he and the other hunters with him had folowed the dogs in the chase through the jungles for four hours.

The beast was a female of the black variety and was beyond the average size. The fact that she was secured at all is attributed to the staying qualities of the new dogs.

The news was brought in by a courier who arrived from Bear camp. The exploit has given heart to the camp and the hunters are now working with renewed vigor in the hope of making a brilliant finish.

TOWN FOOTBALL TEAM.

Team Will Be Organized, Notwithstanding Former Useless Efforts.

Notwithstanding that former efforts have been fruitless in an effort to organize a town football team, those who have the work in hand, and who are most deeply interested, declare that a team will be organized, and a good one, too.

The Sun stated that Thursday night a practice game of this team was held, but this was a mistake. It was not The Sun's mistake, however, as the reporter had been reliably informed there would be a practice.

It happened that a few of the young men of the city who are the leading spirits in the matter of organizing a football team are Elks, and on last Thursday night attended the meeting of Gainesville lodge, which accounted for the fact that there was no meeting. They declare, however, that the team will be organized regardless, and promise some good games during the season.

Mangoes in Florida

Throughout most of the tropics, in the West Indies, Central America, Brazil, Natal Malaysia, Queensland, and the Pacific Islands, by far the greater number of mango trees are seedlings. Now, there are three points about most seedling mangoes which are usually unbearable to one unaccustomed to the fruit, and which stamp such mangoes clearly as inferior produce, for which a high price will never be paid. These are: The turpentine flavor, which seems nauseous to most denizens of cool countries; the abundant fiber, which makes eating the fruit a disagreeable process; and the scent, which is by no means pleasing to many people of the temperate zone. From these causes it happens that when ordinary seedling mangoes are introduced in small quantities to the markets of North America or Europe, in most cases the casual consumer, after eating one, has no desire ever to taste another. Most persons who have visited the tropics (except perhaps India) can recall their disgust at their first mango, which was probably one of the turpentine varieties. Of course a taste for mangoes is readily acquired after the consumption of a few dozen of them; but the fact that the fruit is disliked at first prevents it from being of much value in the temperate markets.

On the other hand there are several kinds of grafted Indian mangoes which are distinguished by the absence of turpentine flavor, by a creamy fiberless pulp, which can be eaten with a spoon, and by a most appetizing aroma. Such fruits gain instant acceptance in temperate markets and are at once in great favor with the uninitiated in mango eating. These kinds mostly originated (as superior seedlings) in India, the home of the mango, and have been propagated by grafting for very many years. The seed has become smaller, in comparison with the pulp, and sometimes contains only one embryo (which may occasionally be missing, leaving only the flat shell). In India there are hundreds of named sorts of such mangoes, as there are hundreds of named sorts of grafted apples in the United States. To establish an orchard of seedling mangoes is nearly the same as to plant one of seedling appletrees, though the seedling mango seems to come rather more true than the apple (perhaps on account of the polyembryony of most seedling mangoes).

The United States Department of Agriculture has introduced the following varieties of grafted mangoes, mainly from India. (Some of these, however, may be the same kind under different names, for the spelling of the names varies in different places in India):

Most of these cultivated sorts of mangoes have been distributed, or are being grown in the grounds of the Subtropical Laboratory at Miami, Fla., until the fruit of each ripens and its quality can be ascertained. Of those which have ripened up to this year in Florida, the Mulgoba is considered the best as a market fruit. It forms a well-shaped tree, branched low down. In Southern Florida it keeps dark-green and healthy. It does not bear so late that it meets with a market glutted with autumn fruit. This mango weighs about a pound. It ripens well and slowly when picked from the tree while still green, so that it can be readily carried from one end of the United States to the other. It is covered with a waxy gloom, and perhaps in consequence, does not seem to get spotted very—easily from fungus attacks. When fully ripe it is yellow with a red cheek. It has a fine pleasant aroma, scenting the room. The bright yellow pulp has a melting consistency and fine flavor. It is fiberless, so that it can be eaten with a spoon. The trees promise to bear abundant crops, i. e., some thousands of fruit each, when over ten years old. A few crates of Mulgobas sent this year to New York and other cities carried well and sold for fancy prices. Several orchards are being planted near Miami with budded Mulgobas. One has 100 healthy trees, many of them five years old. Another has about 300 budded mango trees, mostly Mulgobas, and also budded, Alphonse. The Alphonse (or Bennett) is a celebrated variety with fruit weighing about half a pound. The tree is coarser in leaf and branch than the Mulgoba. The fruit is greenish yellow, with or without a pinkish cheek. The flesh is melting with slightly acid aromatic taste. The Sundersha is a tree which fruits young. It produces very large mangoes, weighing two pounds or so and 6 inches or more long. The fruit ripens late, and the flavor does not seem so popular as that of the Mulgoba.

The soil which yields the best mangoes in India is a deep, well-drained loam, containing a fair amount of lime, and the presence of nodules of limestone seems the reverse of prejudical. Budded Mulgoba and Alphonse (Bennett) mangoes may be obtained near Miami, in long wooden boxes (which leave the roots free to develop), at a rate of $160 to $200 a hundred, according to the size of the plants. Grafted mangoes can be secured in quantity at Palm Beach. A good little book on mangoes is "The Mango, Its Culture and Varieties," by Prof. G. M. Woodrow; Alexander Gardner, Paisley & H. G. Cove, London, 1904.

In the West Indies there are perhaps a dozen species of scale insects which prey on the mango. In Hawaii and elsewhere the larvae of a weevil (Cryptorhynchus mangifera) do much damage by boring into the mango fruit and feeding on the young seed. In Mexico the fruitfly (Trypeta ludens) lay its eggs in ripe mangoes (as well as guavas and oranges, so that sometimes it is difficult to find a mango which does not contain several maggots. Precautions should be taken at the ports of Florida by fumigating with hydrocyanic acid all plant material entering, so that none of these mango pests can reach South Florida.

THE PERFECT WAY

Scores of Florida Citizens Have Learned It.

A bad back means sick kidneys.

Neglect it, urinary troubles follow.

Doan's Kidney Pills are made for kidneys only.

S. B. Lemons, cigar maker, living at 1311 Ashlet street, Tampa, Fla., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me of backache and disorder of the kidneys. Two or three times on account of the pain in my back I was unable to work for several days. The secretions of the kidneys were in a very bad condition, dark in color, and if allowed to stand would become of the consistency of jelly. I tried various remedies, taking what seemed like gallons of medicine and I also put on plasters, but nothing helped me at all until I got Doan's Kidney Pills upon the advice of a friend of mine, and using them according to directions they cured me in a very short tir

WILLIAM C. BARNES DEAD.

Former Foreman of The Sun Office Passed Away in South Florida.

William C. Barnes, well known in this city, where for years he served as foreman of The Sun and was a valuable acquisition to this paper, has passed away, and The Bartow Courier-Informant has the following to say of his death:

"W. C. Barnes is no more, death having claimed the young man after a lingering illness. He was a printer by trade and for many months was a compositor on The C.-I., where he was well thought of, and left the employ of the company with the best wishes of all who knew him.

"Mr. Barnes was a native of Florida, having been born at Ocala November 29, 1868. At the age of 15 he entered the printing trade and has worked at it ever since until a few months ago, when on account of ill health, he was compelled to engage in another occupation, having purchased the cool-drink stand of Ed Hollingsworth, where he was doing a lucrative business.

"Several weeks ago he was taken sick and about two weeks ago compelled to take to his bed. He went to the home of his sister, Mrs. W. W. Hull, at Pebbledale, where surrounded by loved ones, he passed away. The remains were brought to Bartow for interment and laid to rest in the new cemetery, Rev. S. W. Walker, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating. The interment was in charge of Undertaker Angle, who went to Pebbledale Sunday morning for the body. The death of this young man occurred Saturday last. To the bereaved ones the C.-I. extends condolence.

"Quite a number of friends followed the remains to their last resting place and loving friends honored his memory by placing beautiful flowers on the grave."

LETTER TO JOHN DAMPIER,

Hague, Florida.

Dear Sir: Paint goes by gallons. There are useful and useless gallons. Useful paint is lead-zinc-and-oil with dryer and color; useless paint is whiting, china-clay, ground stone, barytes, benzine, or water.

This stuff is put in, because it is cheap, to stuff out the paint, to make more gallons to sell; of course, the buyer doesn't suspect, or he wouldn't buy it.

It costs as much to brush on this useless stuff as lead-zinc-and-oil; but it looks like that and feels like that in the brush; the painter doesn't suspect it. Besides, if the owner is willing, why should the painter object to painting two gallons for one? He is paid by the day; more gallons, more days, more money.

Average paint at full price is about one-third this useless stuff; and average paint at $1.25 or $1.50 or $1.75 a gallon is two-thirds trash. Fool paint is the proper name for all but pure paint; it is made to fool people with. Knave paint is another good name; it is made of course by knaves. Sick paint is a name for an honest weak paint. They are all weak and all extravagant: too many gallons to buy and too many gallons to brush on. Devoe is the standard.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & CO.

WALDO IN HARD LUCK.

May Be Deprived of Sub-District on Account of Lack of Interest.

It looks as though the town of Waldo will soon be short several hundred dollars special sub-district school funds, unless the citizens and patrons manifest more interest in the school, which is now one of the best in the county, ranking with the Gainesville Graded and High School in standing.

Geo. P. Morris, formerly of Waldo but now making his home in Gainesville, is still a member of the Board of Trustees of the Waldo school, and is deeply interested in its welfare. Through his untiring efforts, along with other members of the board, the school has prospered to such an extent that it is rated among the best in the State.

A third attempt is now being made to hold an election, for three trustees, which is called for November 18, and this should at least result in the selection of three trustees.

The News notice, which explains itself, follows:

"A letter from Trustee Morris, now of Gainesville, says Superintendent Kelley instructs that unless the school election be held here we will lose the benefit of the sub-district school tax amounting to several hundred dollars. Now, two attempts have been made to hold that election and they failed. The letter also says: 'The time has arrived when the people of Waldo must get busy, or they will wake up some morning, in the not far distant future, to find themselves without a school.' The indifference of our voters is about to cause the closing of our public school. Once more will the attempt be made to hold that election. Come and vote if you do not want our town and community to take a back seat."

HONOR TO MR. DOW.

Has Been Elected a Life Member of Gainesville Lodge of Elks.

As a token of appreciation of friendship and brotherly love, which the order emulates, W. E. Dow was, at the last meeting of Gainesville Lodge No. 990, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, elected a life member of Gainesville lodge, which is the highest compliment that could be paid any man by this order.

Mr. Dow, who a few months ago had the misfortune of a stroke of paralysis, and who has been spending the past few weeks with his family in South Carolina, was, before his illness, one of the most enthusiastic workers of the order, and was very active in the matter of organizing Gainseville lodge. The members of the local lodge regard him very highly, and unanimously voted him a life member as a token of their esteem.

Mr. Dow has been notified of the honor conferred upon him, and it goes without saying that he will appreciate the compliment.

MAJOR HILL DEAD.

Well-Known Man of Affairs Died at His Lake Butler Home.

The Starke Telegraph announces the death on Wednesday morning in Lake Butler of Major Joseph L. Hill, one of the oldest and most widely known residents of this section of the State, who has for years been well known and popular here. Death was due to paralysis.

In commenting the life and character of Major Hill, The Telegraph says:

"The deceased moved to Bradford county in 1865, shortly after the close of the Civil War, and from the first had occupied a prominent place among the citizenship of the county. He was for several years county superintendent of public instruction and represented the county twice in the lower house of the State Legislature. For twenty-five years he was chairman of the county Democratic executive committee and his tact and good judgment contributed to the success of the party in many closely drawn contests when the carpet-bag element of the Republican party was much in evidence in his section. He was faithful to every public trust committed to his hands, and personally he was one of the most genial and companionable men of the writer's acquaintance. Numberless friends throughout the county and State will deplore his death."

MISS JULIE FLORENCE WALSH

WOMEN SUFFER

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have immediate assistance.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong?

The cause may be easily traced to some feminine derangement which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, backache, dragging sensations, flatulency, nervousness, and sleeplessness.

These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless heeded, a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result. The best remedy for all these symptoms is made from native roots and herbs. No other medicine in the country has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female ills.

Miss J. F. Walsh, of 328 W. 36th St., New York City, writes:—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been of inestimable value in restoring my health. I suffered from female illness which caused dreadful headaches, dizziness, and dull pains in my back, but your medicine soon brought about a change in my general condition, built me up and made me perfectly well."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cures Female Complaints, such as Backache, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and organic diseases. It is invaluable in preparing for child-birth and during the Change of Life. It cures Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility, and invigorates the whole system.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free.

MR. HAMPTON EXPLAINS.

Editor Sun: I think your editorial in The Sun of yesterday, relative to the petition filed by the people of Gainesville with the Florida Railroad Commission asking for the establishment of a union passenger railway station at this place, would not have been written had you been familiar with the facts.

I assure the people of Gainesville that the railroad commission acted upon their petition promptly, and there has not been a single day of delay that was not absolutely necessary, except such as was occasioned by the failure of the Seaboard Air Line railway to send its engineer to consult with the committee in regard to location of the site, at the time agreed upon. That failure, however, has been explained to the satisfaction of the committee.

Considering the importance of the project, the amount of money involved, and the difficulty of securing a site free from objections, the matter appears to have been handled with extraordinary promptness, as it is now before the commission ready for final adjudication, within six months from the date of filing of the petition, notwithstanding the fact that there have been two hearings ordered by the commission requiring 30 days' notice each, and several conferences with representatives of the railroad companies, requiring notice, and my notice of final report to the railroad commission, on which I gave the railroad companies 30 days' notice. This report was filed with the commission on October 4th and they will no doubt act finally in the matter at an early date.

It is the opinion of the committee that we have made out our case before the commission, and should the order be made requiring the railroad companies to erect a union passenger station at Gainesville, the order will be promptly obeyed by the railroad companies.

Very respectfully,
B. F. HAMPTON,
Chairman Union Station Committee, and Secretary Board of Trade.

With all our natural resources we are enormous consumers of imported farm products. In the fiscal year ended June 30, 1906, there were imported into the United States farm products valued at $554,000,000 out of total imports of $1,226,000,000. The share of farm products out of the total was 45.2 per cent. For the five years 1900-04 the proportion was 46.7 per cent. For the five years 1895-99 it was 51.1 per cent, and for the five years, 1890-94, inclusive, 51 per cent. Practically half the imports of the United States in the past seventeen years were products of the soil.

Twenty years ago textile mills in the territory traversed by the Southern railway were almost as far apart at the beginning and the end of a day's journey. On January 1, 1907, there were 705 textile mills in the same territory. Of these mills 538 were engaged in the manufacture of cotton goods, 116 make knit wear and 50 turn out woolen goods. The mill equipment in operation shows a total of 174,996 looms and 7,377,812 spindles.

THE GENERAL COTTON MARKET.

December cotton at New York on Tuesday closed at 11 cents a pound, compared with 11.02 a year ago. Then the market was face to face with an acknowledged crop of 13,500,000 bales, while a smaller one by a million bales is generally expected this year. Why is cotton not higher?

In the first place the market, both from the supply side and the demand side, as well as from the speculative standpoint, is now quite differently constituted. The holding capacity of the producer is this season much more fully developed, whether regarded financially or commercially. The producer has more money with which to hold his crop, is in better standing with banks to borrow on account of his holdings, and is commercially better informed as to the conditions controlling the market. Nevertheless, the stringency of the money market is against the success of any aggressive holding policy, whether supported by spinners or not. Furthermore, the crop has still possibilities in it of considerable increase if weather favors it.

From the milling standpoint both the yarn-makers and the weavers have cares of their own. The factory product market is gradually settling, in spite of all that can be done to the contrary. Although the mills are secure for the time being, as shown in an analysis of the trade, they are not likely to add any strength to the prices of cotton fibre at the present stage of a falling market. The commission houses, which have the most direct relation to mills on the one hand and to the distributing trade on the other, are doing their best to keep the market from breaking under pressure of reduction or cancellation of orders.

The only other factor of primary importance is the speculative position of raw cotton. Just now this is not so immediately concerned with the textile side of the market, although remotely it must materially influence mill policy. For the present, and for two weeks more at least, frost records will be the main influence affecting fibre prices. If this season's crop should reach last year's proportions, prices must go lower still.

Taken as a whole the cotton trade, from the grower to the wearer, is apparently preparing itself for lower prices. The decline is heaviest at the end of the market nearest the cotton grower and highest at the retail end, with the balance of power in the hands of the mills.

Observers of politics must have noticed that the party spirit has no longer such strength of hold upon the people as was the case only a few years ago. Not only are fusions of different parties made more freely in favor of desirable candidates, but public officials grow more and more bold in declaring the pre-eminence of the public good and the general welfare over partisan considerations. Taking the country over, in spite of exceptions, the leading offices of the land are filled with as competent, as capable and as conscientious a set of men as one might find in many years of survey of times gone by. Times like these have a way of calling into power the people who can do things and do them as the great mass of the people want them done.

The value of railroad property in Mississippi is twelve per cent of the total assessed valuation of the State, including realty and personalty. For every dollar of railway property there are five dollars of realty valuation, and half that amount of personalty. Are these three kinds of property equal treatment before the law?

SEA ISLAND COTTON.

Market Ruled Quiet During Past Week—Prices Lower.

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 19.—The market during the past week was firm for fancy and easy for choice, with extra choice neglected. The percentage of fine cotton in the crop, as shown by the receipts so far, is so small that quotations for fancy were well maintained, but other goods are 1 to 2 cents lower.

The decline in choice has brought about good transactions in that grade but no demand appeared for extra choice. Large receipts are now coming from Florida, but the greater part are still from Georgia.

Little change was noted in crop accounts, except that complaints of frost damage have been received from Georgia and Florida on two days of the week. It is too early yet to say how great the damage was. Apart from this the weather was very favorable, being mostly clear and bright all the week.

The following prices are based on factors' quotations:

Ex. Ga.'s and Fla.'s	.30	@30½
Ex. choice Ga.'s and Fla.'s	.27	@28

EMBALMERS DISSATISFIED.

License Has Been Raised Enormously for State and County.

The embalmers of the county have a "kick" registered in the matter of their license tax, which has been raised to a total of $112.50, State and county.

A prominent embalmer stated Saturday that the members of his profession could not afford to pay this license, hence they would be compelled to go out of business.

"At the greatest we do not have more than four cases a year to each embalmer," this man said, "and it stands to reason, taking the chances as we must, that it will not pay us to take out an embalmer's license if we have to pay this much."

The matter stands now in a rather embarassing predicament. The chances are that the county will not have a single embalmer, and the fellow who dies will indeed be in luck as far as being embalmed is concerned.

The only relief will be the taking out of an undertaker's license, which is only $22.75, State and county. The undertakers and embalmers of the city and county declare the license is entirely too high, hence will not take the embalmer's license, only using the license of an undertaker.

Insane Man Kills Deputy Sheriff.

Covington, Tenn., Oct. 19.—While endeavoring to arrest James P. Strong, an insane man who escaped from the Bolivar state asylum, near Atoka, about a month ago, Deputy Sheriff C. M. Webb, of Atoka, was killed and Deputy Louis Ogilvie, of this city, was dangerously wounded Thursday. Strong, who is a man of about middle age, is a member of one of the most prominent families of this county. His mind became unbalanced from brooding over his failure in business 15 years ago.

Afflicted With Sore Eyes for 33 Years.

I have been afflicted with sore eyes for thirty-three years. Thirteen years ago I became totally blind and was blind for six years. My eyes were badly inflamed. One of my neighbors insisted upon my trying Chamberlain's Salve and gave me half a box of it. To my surprise it healed my eyes and my sight came back to me.—P. C. Earls, Cynthiana, Ky. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by all druggists.

DOG'S WONDERFUL SAGACITY.

Travels 300 Miles and Finds Mistress Among 2,000,000 People.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Left in Columbus, O., more than 300 miles away on March 10, last, Trix Clark, pet dog and companion of May Clark, 16 years of age, suddenly turned up in Chicago Thursday and discovered his mistress, having made one of the most remarkable journeys performed by an animal on record and accomplished the additional feat of singling out the family with whom he formerly lived from among more than 2,000,000 of people.

How the dog found the residence of his young mistress will always remain a mystery. When Miss Clark came out of a restaurant the dog was sitting wan and gaunt in front of her lodgings.

At the sight of her he dashed forward and before she realized what was happening he had both paws around her neck. With a glad bark from the dog and an affectionate hug from the girl, the recognition was complete. To make sure of his identity, however, the dog was put through some of the paces he had learned as a pup. He was then taken home, fed and put to sleep.

Miss Clark and her mother have been living in their present quarters only three weeks. Previously they lived in several parts or the city. Their change of residence must have made the dog's task exceedingly difficult.

ASTONISHING FIGURES.

Said There Are 250,000 Deaths Annually from Mosquito Bites

New York, Oct. 19.—"There are 250,000 deaths annually as the result of mosquito bites," said Dr. Elward A. Ayres, a member of the faculty of the New York Polytechnic, at a meeting in the New York Academy of Medicine.

Dr Ayres furnished astonishing figures in his lecture on the "Mosquito as a Sanitary Problem." He said five diseases were directly traceable to the bite of the insect. They are malaria, yellow fever, berri berri, dengue and filariasis. The government is eliminating the mosquito danger by draining swamp lands, he said.

Quinsy, Sprains and Swellings Cured.

"In November, 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe. I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L. Cousins, Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment and is especially valued for sprains and swellings. For sale by all druggists.

WILL SKATE TO WORK.

Roosevelt Strenuosity Reaches Post-Office Department.

Washington, Oct. 19—Begining on next Monday, employees of the post-office department will skate to their offices, following the general movement for athletic tests for the military and civil service begun by the president in his order for horseback rides for staff officers.

Assistant Chief Clerk Thompson, observing the good effect of the ride from Fort Myer, took counsel with himself how he could extend the new system to his brood, and the roller skating order is the result. Not only clerks, but bureau chiefs and assistant chiefs are expected to join the roller-skae brigade—women as well as men.

Postmaster General Meyer's secretary, Dr. Holmes, has agreed to lead, and Chief Clerk Chance has promised to act as Holme's chief of staff. Both are busy practicing figure eights on their skates with a view to animating and encouraging their followers when the great roller-skate procession begins its journey.

GOOD BLOOD

NATURE'S PROTECTION AGAINST DISEASE

The preservation of health and prevention against disease is almost entirely dependent upon pure, healthy blood; every organ, tissue, nerve and sinew of the body draws on this vital fluid for nourishment and strength. Poisons, humors and germs from various sources often get into the blood, and then this great life-stream becomes a source of infection and disease instead of a nourishing, health-sustaining fluid. Heredity is likewise an important factor, regulating the quality of the blood. Some persons are born with tainted blood from diseased ancestry, and Scrofula in one of its numerous forms is sure to crop out some time in life. Not only poisons in the blood are responsible for disease, but when the circulation is run down and becomes poor and weak in quality, then we see the effect in a general bad condition of health, such as weakness, sallow complexions, boils, and various skin eruptions. All blood troubles require a tonic and blood purifier, and none other equals S. S. S. It goes down to the very foundation of the trouble, and removes every particle of the poison or impurity from the blood. And not only does S. S. S. antidote the poisons, humors and germs, but it possesses health-giving, tonic properties which build up and strengthen weak, impoverished blood, and fortifies the system against disease. S. S. S. permanently cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Eczema, Tetter, and all other skin diseases and disorders. Write us on the blood and any medical advice free.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

D. O. Norfleet and mother were in the city from Newberry yesterday. Mr. Norfleet is an extensive miner of phosphate, and has made a big success.

I. W. Pinholster of Bellmore, Clay county, was in the city yesterday on business connected with the United States land office. Mr. Pinholster is a very prominent and well-read man, and for several years was superintendent of public instruction of Clay county.

Mrs. J. L. Kelley has returned from Balsam, Asheville and other points in North Carolina, where she has been recuperating for the past few weeks. Friends will be glad to learn that her health has been greatly improved. She was met by Dr. Kelley in Jacksonville.

Alexander Francisco and wife and Peter Francisco, the first and latter brothers of Nicholas Francisco of this city, have arrived in New York from Asia Minor, Islands of Turque, and will come to Gainesville to make their home here. They are expected in a few days.

In most cases consumption results from a neglected or improperly treated cold. Foley's Honey and Tar cures the most obstinate coughs and prevents serious results. It costs you no more than the unknown preparations and you should insist upon having the genuine in the yellow package. J. W. McCollum & Co.

When in need of anything in lithographic or engraved stationery, including society stationery and monograms. The Sun business department would be pleased to show samples and quote prices. We are agents for one of the leading firms of the United States for these goods, and our prices are as low as is consistent with the class of work.

Henry E. Jones of Tampa, Fla., writes: "I can thank God for my present health, due to Foley's Kidney Cure. I tried doctors and all kinds of kidney cures, but nothing done me much good till I took Foley's Kidney Cure. Four bottles cured me, and I have no more pain in my back and shoulders. I am 62 years old, and suffered long, but thanks to Foley's Kidney Cure I am well and can walk and enjoy myself. It is a pleasure to recommend it to those needing a kidney medicine. J. W. McCollum & Co.

George Landers, who has been in the employ of W. R. Thomas & Co., livery stables, as superintendent of heavy hauling, for the past year, has accepted a position as manager for the big Stringfellow plantation a few miles west of the city, and has already assumed his duties. Mr. Landers has made a study of farming and trucking, and is a practical agriculturist. To use the expression, he has come so thoroughly posted that he comes very near knowing how to make "two blades of grass grow where only one grew before."

J. T. Vertrees, Jr., of Palatka, junior member of the firm of Vertrees & Co., wholesale grain, spent yesterday in this city in the interest of his firm. In speaking of the recent election in Putnam county on the wet and dry question, Mr. Vertrees stated that he believed the county going dry would be a great help. He says many in Palatka believe the city will take a backward step, but the fact that the majority of votes there were dry is the best evidence that Palatka wanted, at least for a time to experiment on the dry side of the question.

The millinery reception at The G. W. Hyde Co's. Great Department Store, which is announced for Tuesday and Wednesday, October 22nd and 23rd, promises much to the ladies of Gainesville and vicinity. The G. W. Hyde Co. are fortunate in securing the services of a designer and trimmer whose ideas are not confined to two or three styles and whose reputation as a trimmer is far reaching. The beautiful pattern hats imported from Paris and the creations from their own work-rooms can be shown side by side. To describe them is beyond words. They can only cordially invite you to come and enjoy the day with them.

"My Hair is Longer and Thicker than ever before"

This recent photograph of Miss Bessie Woodruff, of Powell, Pa., is certainly strong proof of the value of

Newbro's Herpicide

Here is Miss Woodruff's letter: "Newbro's Herpicide is a delightful hair dressing and I find by its continued use that my hair is growing longer and thicker than ever before."
—(Signed) BESSIE WOODRUFF.

"For years I have been troubled with dandruff very bad and have tried many different hair preparations, but did not receive any benefit. I purchased a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide and it helped me right away."
Gainesville, Fla. —(Signed) MRS. W. R. STECKERT.

It is so easy to learn, by actual experience, the value of Newbro's Herpicide for dandruff, falling hair, itching scalp, etc., that no one in need of it should delay one moment in making the test.

A single application is enough to convey the impression of its worth, while the results of its continued intelligent use will speak for themselves.

Newbro's Herpicide is known as the ORIGINAL remedy that "kills the dandruff germ," and its success, which is constantly increasing, has been phenomenal. Remember that permanent success is not built upon false claims. Get a bottle or send for a sample of Herpicide today. There are hundreds of imitations which should be avoided.
